Considering the Act No. 204/2011 (hereinafter referred to as the "Nftv") and the Government Decree No. 423/2012 (XII. 29.) on the Admission Procedure in Higher Education (hereinafter referred to as the "Decree"), the Board of Trustees of the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences (hereinafter: University) and the Foundation for the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences has set out the Admission Rules (hereinafter referred to as the "Rules") as follows:

1. EFFECTIVE SCOPE OF REGULATION

1. §

- (1) The Admission Regulation applys to the admission procedure for all courses of the University, whether in Hungarian or in a foreign language: for Hungarian and non-Hungarian citizens applying for bachelor's, master's, undivided and higher education vocational training courses.
- (2) The admission procedure for doctoral studies is governed by the operational Rules of Doctoral Schools.
- (3) <sup>1</sup>The Regulation also applys to joint international programmes and programmes in foreign languages for foreign citizens, as well as to the admission procedure for postgraduate specialist training programmes and the admission procedure for off-campus, cross-border training programmes.
- (4) <sup>2</sup>The announcement of admission for the programmes referred to in Section (3) shall be published by the University on its website and the Education Office shall be informed about the students admitted and enrolled (having active student status) through the Higher Education Information System (hereinafter referred to as the FIR).

2. INTERPRETATIVE PROVISIONS

2.§

- (1) Maintainer: the Foundation for the Hungarian University of Agricultue and Life Sciences.
- (2) Academic scores: scores obtained on the basis of secondary school performance and school-leaving examination results
- (3) GCSE's scores: the scores obtained at the General Exam of Secondary Education on the basis of the results of the subjects for the given degree programme.
- (3a) <sup>3</sup>Vocational examination: a national examination that measures the mastery of the professional knowledge acquired in the course of vocational education and training and the professional skills specifically required for the given profession in the training and outcome requirements, in a nationally uniform procedure. Vocational qualifications and secondary school certificates awarded from 2021 onwards, as well as further vocational education and training corresponding to the vocational qualification of applicants who obtained a vocational qualification with a vocational qualification number 54 or 55 in the National Training Register published after 2012 but before 1 January 2020, may be taken into account for the calculation of points as described in the Higher Education Admission Guide.

- (4) Ranking decision: the decision as to which of the courses indicated and ranked in the application for admission is the first course for which the applicant has reached the pass mark for admission. In a given admission procedure, the ranking established by the candidate may be used to place him/her in only one place in the admission procedure.
- (5) <sup>4</sup>Admission decision: a decision taken by the University in a central admission procedure on the basis of a classification decision, or by the University in its own institutional procedure on the basis of the processing and institutional ranking of applications, informing the applicant of the result of the admission procedure.
- (5a) <sup>5</sup>Minimum score: for the 2023 general admission procedure, the higher education institution may set a minimum score which may not exceed
  - a) the minimum score required for admission to the Hungarian state scholarship programme for the year 2022, determined by the Minister on the basis of Section (4) of Section 46 of the Nftv:
  - b) 280 points for bachelor's and master's degrees, except for teacher education, where 260 points are awarded, and for economics, where 320 points are awarded;
  - c) 240 points for higher educational vocational training;
  - d) 50 points for a Master's degree.
- (6) <sup>6</sup>Additional points: points awarded for additional performance during the admission procedure which can be counted towards the admission score. Excess points shall be used in the 2024 general admission procedure only for Master's degree courses.
- (7) <sup>7</sup>Responsible campus: the basic activity organisational unit where the applicant wishes to become a student in the course of the initial training.
- (7a) <sup>8</sup>Headquarter campus: the campus of the headquarter of the institute according to Article 27 (2) of the Organisational and Operational Regulations.
- (8) Responsible doctoral school: the doctoral school in which the applicant wishes to establish a student status.
- (8a) <sup>9</sup>Institutional scores: points awarded for additional performance in a system established at the discretion of the institution, which can be counted towards the admission score. Institutional points will be applied from the general admission procedure 2024.
- (9) List of professions and qualifications that may be taken into account for the calculation of points in the admission procedure: list of professions as set out in Annex 3 to the Regulation.

(8) During the admission procedure for undivided and divided teacher training courses, the bachelor programmes of teacher training courses for infant and early childhood education, and certain art and art mediation courses, the evaluation of the examination of professional aptitude

- may be "passed" or "failed", in accordance with Article 18(2) of the Decree. In the case of a 'fail' mark, the applicant's overall score is zero.
- (9) <sup>56</sup>The University operates an Admission Decision Making Board (hereinafter referred to as "FDT") to perform tasks related to the admission procedure, in particular, but not exclusively, the range of courses to be announced and the setting of the central admission procedure score criteria. The FDT shall be convened for the central admission procedure, and may be convened by the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs on the recommendation of the members of the Board for all other admission procedures. The FDT shall be convened by the Educational director in consultation with the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs. The members of the FDT shall be informed in advance by the Educational director of the expected date of the drawing of the line, and thus of the scheduled dates of the Board meetings.
- (9a) <sup>57,58</sup>The FDT is chaired by the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs. Its members are:
  - a) the Rector or a person delegated by the Rector;
  - b) A person delegated by the Foundation for the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences;
  - c) <sup>59</sup>the Director General of each campus, in case of absence the Deputy Director General of the campus;
  - d) the director of each institute hosting a degree course in the given admission procedure, or, in his/her absence, the educational vice-director of the institute;
  - e) the Director-General for Economic Affairs;
  - f) the Educational director, or, in his absence, the Head of the Department of Education from the Educational Directorate;
  - g) <sup>60</sup>the Head of the Training Coordination Centre;
  - h) <sup>61</sup>the Head of the International Directorate.

The FDT is competent when at least half of its members are present. Each member has one vote. The Director General for Coordination; the Head of the Department, on the proposal of the Director of the Institute; the Head of the Centre for Agro-Rural Development of the Carpathian Basin; the Deputy Director General of the Campus, in the presence of the Director General of the Campus, and the Deputy Director General for Education, in the presence of the Director of the Institute, may participate in the FDT meetings with the right to deliberate.

- (9b)<sup>62</sup>For one or a few programmes only, the FDT may meet without the invitation and participation of the full board. The members referred to in points (a), (b), (f) and (g) and the representatives of the campus(es) and institute(s) concerned referred to in points (c) and (d) shall be invited to such a meeting.
- (10) <sup>63,64</sup>The Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs appoints the exam proctor and the room supervisor on the basis of the examination subject, provided that the room supervisor should not be a person who has the appropriate qualifications or training to oversee the examination subject.

(11)<sup>65,66</sup>The correction of the FFSzV shall be organised in such a way that the applicant has the opportunity to consult it within the timeframe set by the Education Office for the conduct of admission. The timetable for the current admission period will be designated and published by the Training Coordination Centre at least two weeks before the examination date.

3.9. Scoring for applicants of bachelor's programme, higher educational vocational training and undivided programmes

11. §

- (1) In the case of applications to undergraduate and postgraduate courses, the applicant's performance shall be assessed by the overall admission score calculated as follows:
  - a) by adding the academic points and the GCSE score, or
  - b) by multiplying the marks obtained at the end of the course by two, in both cases, by adding any additional points obtained at the General Exam of Secondary Education and any other additional points.

- (1a) <sup>67</sup>By way of derogation from Article 15 of the Decree, the overall admission score of an applicant with a certificate attesting to a secondary vocational qualification who is pursuing further studies in the field of his/her vocational qualification shall be calculated, to the applicant's advantage, as follows:
  - a) by adding together the academic scores and the GCSE scores, or
  - b) by multiplying the GCSE scores by two, or
  - c) by quadrupling the professional examination result only, or
  - d) by adding together the number of academic scores and the results of one of the subjects for which admission is conditional on passing the General Exam of Secondary Education and one of the vocational examination; or
  - e) twice the result of one of the subjects which is conditional to admission and the result of one vocational examination and in each case with the addition of the additional points provided for in Articles 20 to 21 and Article 24 of the Decree. The detailed rules for the total score for admission of applicants with a certificate attesting the possession of a secondary vocational qualification are laid down in Article 15/A (2) to (8) of the Decree.

- (1b) In the case of applications for higher education vocational training, the applicant's performance shall be assessed by an overall admission score calculated as follows:
  - a) by multiplying the academic scores by two,
  - b) by adding together the academic scores and the GCSE scores, or
  - c) by multiplying the GCSE scores by two,

in all three cases, by adding any additional points for the higher level of GCSE or the higher education vocational entrance examination (hereinafter referred to as additional points for the school-leaving certificate') and any other additional points.

- (2) Of the two methods of calculation referred to in Section 1, the one which is more favourable to the applicant shall be used.
- (3) The applicants in the admission procedure can obtain:
  - a) a maximum of 200 academic scores, based on the average of his/her secondary school marks and the percentage of marks obtained in the school-leaving examinations;
  - b) a maximum of 200 points on the basis of the results of the GCSE as a condition for admission;
  - c) up to 100 additional points for the higher level of GCSE or for the vocational examinations for admission to higher education;
  - d) <sup>68</sup>-
  - e) further additional points
    - ea) as specified in Articles 20-21 of the Decree,
    - eb) in order to ensure equal opportunities, in accordance with § 24 of the Decree.
- (4) <sup>69</sup>The maximum of additional points or institutional scores that may be awarded under Section 3(c) to (e) shall not exceed 100 points. An applicant shall be entitled to 100 points only, even if the total number of additional points obtained under the different titles would exceed this total.
- (5) In the case of applications for courses in the field of art and art mediation and for single-subject and two-subject teacher training in the field of art, where there is a practical examination, the provisions of Articles 14-17/A of the Decree shall apply, except that the overall admission score of applicants for these courses shall be determined solely on the basis of the practical examination. In this case, the overall admission score shall be determined by doubling the grades obtained in the practical test, up to a maximum of 200 points, without adding any additional points. In the case of two-semester teacher education, 100 points may be obtained on the basis of the practical examination in the arts and 100 points on the basis of the percentage of the final examination in the general studies. In this case, too, the applicant's total score is calculated without any additional points, excluding any additional points for the GCSE.
- (6) The University may rank applicants with a higher education degree or postgraduate specialist certificate, if they are applying for a bachelor's degree, or an undivided undivided programme or a higher educational vocational training programme, as published in the Guide, on the basis of the higher education vocational certificate or diploma in a higher education programme, with the dispension of the higher level GCSE requirement. In this case, the scores awarded for a certificate will be determined as follows:
  - a) for excellent and very good qualification: 400 points
  - b) 360 points for a good qualification;
  - c) for a satisfactory qualification: 320 points;
  - d) for a sufficient or passed qualification: 280 points.

Qualifications obtained in secondary or higher vocational education cannot be taken into account when calculating points on the basis of degree certificates.

- (7) <sup>70</sup>The possibility of awarding points on the basis of a degree certificates in accordance with Section (6) shall be determined on a uniform basis for each field of study, in cooperation between the directors of the institute and the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs.
- (8) <sup>71</sup>Only applicants with a score equal to or higher than the minimum score announced in the higher education admission Guide for the course may be admitted to undergraduate, postgraduate and higher education vocational education.
- (9) <sup>72</sup>Applicants may meet the requirement of the GCSE examination at the advanced level in the central admission procedure for certain degree programmes as a condition for admission by means of a FFSzV organised by the University as part of the admission procedure, if the applicant has
  - a) the Hungarian school-leaving certificate obtained before the introduction of the two-level school-leaving examination,
  - b) a school-leaving certificate from a foreign EEA Member State, or a school-leaving certificate from Ukraine or Serbia
  - c) a certificate of the International GCSE (Diploma of the International Baccalaureate), or
  - d) holds a European GCSE certificate as defined in Government Decree 322/2004 (XII. 6.) of 21 June 1994 on the promulgation of the Convention defining the Statute for European Schools, signed in Luxembourg on 21 June 1994.
- (10)<sup>73</sup>In the case of foreign-language programmes announced in the institutional procedure and intended exclusively for foreign applicants, the ranking shall be carried out in the way set out in the Appendix pursuant to section 3(6)(d). The University shall operate an electronic platform for the submission of applications.
- (11)<sup>74</sup>In the case of English-language courses announced through central admission procedure, from the general admission procedure in 2022, applicants with at least an intermediate (B2) level, complex English language certificate or equivalent school-leaving certificate or diploma will be admitted.

3.10. Scoring for applicants of masters's programme

- (1) The admission procedure for the master's program particularly the points that can be awarded for admission performance, additional points (its criteria, amount, and determination), and the rules for any entrance exams shall be defined in the admission announcement according to the provisions of this Section.
- (2) The admission requirements and the method of ranking are defined in this Section, with the stipulation that only applicants whose score reaches 50 percent of the score specified in Section (3) may be admitted. The existence of a diploma and language exam certificate as per Section 40(4) of the Nftv., disadvantaged status, disability, unpaid leave for child care, receiving parental leave, child care support, home care allowance, or care fee for home care of children, are verified by the Education Office in the higher education admission procedure.

- (3) The applicant's performance should be evaluated based on a points system, determining the maximum number of scores that can be awarded for admission performance and additional performance. The total score available in the admission procedure can be a maximum of 100 points. For additional performance (as additional points), a maximum of 10 points can be awarded. Applicants entitled to preferential treatment, as listed in the Decree, can receive a total of 10 additional points.
- (4) For applicants to programmes in the field of arts, art mediation, and art-related teacher training, the applicant's performance can be solely determined based on the practical exam. In this case, a total of 99 points can be obtained from the practical exam and 1 point can be awarded as additional points.
- (5) The applicant's performance can be evaluated based on the following criteria for each training area:
  - a) The result of the diploma that meets the entry requirements (diploma qualification or average grade);
  - b) Written and/or oral entrance exam;
  - c) Motivational interview or professional and motivational interview, or an entrance interview;
  - d) Motivation letter;
  - e) Professional resume;
  - f) Portfolio;
  - g) Practical exam.
- (6) <sup>75</sup>The applicant's performance shall be determined either by applying one of the criteria listed in Section (5) independently or by combining multiple criteria. The applicable criteria and the points that can be awarded are determined annually by the directors of the institutes and the vice-rector for education and international relations. In the case of applying criterion (a) from section (5) independently, in order to avoid a large number of applicants with identical scores, points can only be calculated based on the diploma average.
- (7) An applicant can receive additional points based on preferential treatment for the following criteria:
  - a) Disability
  - b) Childcare
  - c) Disadvantaged status
- (8) <sup>76,77</sup>The applicant can receive additional points or institutional points for the following additional performances:
  - a) 2nd language exam / intermediate level (B2) complex (in a language different from the 1st language exam)
  - b) 2nd language exam / advanced level (C1) complex (in a language different from the 1st language exam)
  - c) Institutional TDK 1st-3rd place

- d) OTDK 1st-3rd place
- e) OTDK participation
- f) Publication
- g) Professional activity
- h) Participation in scientific conferences
- i) Sports achievement: national championship 1st-3rd place
- j) Sports achievement: World and European Championship 1st-3rd place
- k) In technical training areas, after passing the qualifying exam in undergraduate programs (mathematics or mechanics exam)
- 1) Starting from the 2023 winter semester admission process, the first intermediate level (B2) or advanced level (C1) language exam.
- (9) <sup>78</sup>The points that can be awarded for the applicant's preferential treatment in Section (7) and additional performance in Section (8) will be determined annually for each training area by the directors of the institutes and the vice-rector for education and international relations.
- (10)<sup>79</sup>In the case of foreign-language programmes announced in the institutional procedure and intended exclusively for foreign applicants, the ranking shall be carried out in the way set out in the Appendix pursuant to section 3(6)(d). The University shall operate an electronic platform for the submission of applications.

3.11. Rules on admission to postgraduate specialist training programmes

- (1) It is possible to announce postgraduate specialist training programmes at the training sites and work schedule as they are registered with the Education Office.
- (2) The admission guide for the postgraduate specialist training programmes shall be published on the University's website, as well as on the official websites of the institutes/campuses. The guide shall include the following:
  - a) The entry requirements;
  - b) The documents to be submitted;
  - c) The admission period for the given specialized further education program (whether it starts in the autumn and/or spring semester);
  - d) The admission procedure fee;
  - e) The method and deadline for applying;
  - f) The tuition fee for the program;
  - g) The duration and location of the program;
  - h) The organization of the program (class schedules);
  - i) A brief description of the program;

- j) The name and contact information of the program leader/contact person.
- (3) <sup>80</sup>The detailed conditions for applying to postgraduate specialist training programmes will be determined by the institutes coordinating the programmes in the appendix according to Section 3 (6) (e). The institutes shall submit their announcement proposals to the Educational Directorate by October 31. The Educational Directorate will compile the announced programs and the content of the guide, and will organize the publication of the admission guide on the university website and the www.felvi.hu website. Additionally, the summary of the announcements shall be sent to the vice-rector for education and international relations for approval by 15 November at the latest. Before the approval, the vice-rector for education and international relations will inform the rector about the programmes to be announced.
- (4) 81-
- (5) The University operates an electronic platform for submitting applications.

3.12. Application for off-campus, cross-border programmes

14. §

- (1) The University may announce its off-campus, cross-border programmes for the current academic year in accordance with the guidelines set by the Ministry of Innovation and Technology. The announcements are included in Appendix 3.
- (2) <sup>82</sup>Hungarian higher education institutions, when announcing their off-campus, cross-border programmes, may also offer state-funded scholarship programmes, taking into account the provisions of Section 73(3) (hb) of the Nftv. In this case, the application can be submitted on a paper-based form provided by the higher education institution, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Decree concerning electronic administration other documents can also be submitted on paper. The University operates an electronic platform for submitting applications.

3.13. Special features of admission

- (1) For those holding a GCSE issued before 2005, the results of the exam are automatically considered as intermediate-level GCS exams, and the grades correspond to the following percentage values:
  - a) Excellent (5): 100%,
  - b) Good (4): 79%,
  - c) Satisfactory (3): 59%,
  - d) Pass (2): 39%.
- (2) Recognition of foreign diplomas and certificates: in Hungary, the recognition of foreign diplomas and certificates is regulated by bilateral and multilateral international recognition agreements, as well as the Act C of 2001 on the recognition of foreign diplomas and certificates (Recognition Act). Legally, a foreign diploma or certificate does not certify any domestic

- qualification, academic degree, professional qualification, or specialization in the absence of statutory provisions or recognition, or without the recognition of an academic degree. Consequently, no entitlement can be based on such a certificate. These diplomas and certificates, once recognized or validated according to the law, grant their holders the same rights as the Hungarian diploma or certificate with which they were declared equivalent.
- (3) 83,84 Recognition for further education is part of the higher education admission procedure. Recognition of foreign baccalaureate and higher education qualifications is the responsibility of the higher education institution in which the applicant intends to pursue his/her studies, taking into account the professional opinion of the Education Office. This form of recognition only entitles you to apply to the type of institution that corresponds to your studies. At the University, the Centre for the Coordination of Training is responsible for the preparation of these awards on behalf of the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs. (For the recognition of a school-leaving certificate or diploma for employment purposes, full recognition by the Hungarian Equivalence and Information Centre of the Education Office is required.)
- (4) <sup>85</sup>Pre-eligibility Exam: The University organizes a so-called pre-eligibility exam for the programmes belonging to the teacher training field before the application deadline. The exam dates and the application requirements shall be made public on the University's and the relevant campus's website.
- (5) The purpose of the pre-eligibility exam, as stated in Section (4), is to provide an opportunity to assess and determine the eligibility of applicants before submitting their application. The pre-eligibility exam is service-oriented, subject to an exam fee, and the fee will be determined and published in the Admission Guide.
- (6) The requirements for the successful pre-eligibility exams, such as the vocal music, speech, and physical fitness exams, are defined in the appendix related to the specific programme. Institutions mutually accept successful eligibility exams, meaning it is sufficient to take the exam at one institution (on one occasion).
- (7) <sup>86</sup>The list of programmes starting in dual training form and the partner organizations cooperating in the given academic year will be published on the University's and the relevant campus's website, as well as in the Guide. If the applicant wishes to continue their studies in dual training, they shall apply for the programme offered in dual form during the admission procedure. Additionally, they shall successfully complete a selection process at one of the partner organizations that have an agreement with the University.
- (8) Dual partner organizations conduct the selection process based on their own needs, meaning they define the expectations that applicants shall meet.

4. CREDIT RECOGNITION PROCEDURE

16. §

(1) During the admission process to the master's programme, the applicant is required to initiate the credit recognition procedure if they are applying for the master's programme with a qualification and professional qualification obtained in a programme that does not meet the full credit recognition requirements according to the training and exit criteria.

- (2) <sup>87</sup>The credit recognition procedure is considered a service, for which the University charges a procedural fee of 5,000 HUF. The fee obligation and payment method shall be published in the Admission Guide and on the University's website.
- (3) <sup>88</sup>If the applicant does not request the University to carry out the credit recognition procedure either at the same time as applying for the master's programme or beforehand, they shall be informed of their obligation to submit a request during the admission procedure and made aware of the legal consequences of failing to do so (exclusion from the programme during the admission process). The campuses and institutes, along with the Educational Directorate, will notify the applicant about the credit recognition procedure.
- (4) The credit recognition procedure will be conducted by the institution's Study and Credit Transfer Committee (hereinafter: TKB) within 30 days of receiving the application, but no later than the general deadline for completing the missing documents in the admission process. During the procedure, the TKB may require the applicant to complete bachelor-level courses in parallel with their master's studies, in accordance with the training and exit criteria.
- (5) If the applicant's qualification does not meet the entry requirements specified in the training and exit criteria, the credit recognition request shall be rejected, and the applicant shall be excluded from the admission process.
- (6) The applicant may submit a request for appeal to the Student Appeal Committee within 15 days from the receipt of the TKB's decision, or from the date they became aware of it, in accordance with the provisions outlined in the TVSZ. The appeal request shall be processed in accordance with the relevant regulations of the TVSZ.

5. ENSURING EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

- (1) During the admission process, the University is obliged to ensure that applicants with disabilities are provided with the conditions to participate in the admission procedure.
- (2) Applicants with disabilities are entitled to the same benefits during the admission process as those provided under the laws related to public education or education.
- (3) If the University requires health, professional suitability, or other eligibility requirements (such as written or oral exams) as part of the admission procedure, applicants with disabilities are entitled to benefits or exemptions according to the regulations for students with special needs as outlined in Annex 2 of the TVSZ: "Regulation on Benefits Ensuring Equal Opportunities for Students with Special Needs."
- (4) The benefit or exemption granted during the admission process shall align with the nature of the disability and cannot lead to full exemption from the basic academic requirements needed for admission.
- (5) To ensure equal opportunities, the provisions outlined in Section 24 of the Decree shall be applied.

6. ADMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY

6.1. The Ranking Decision

18. §

- (1) The Education Office shall make the ranking decision
  - a) for the cross-semester admission procedure, no later than January 25 of the year the programme begins;
  - b) for the general admission procedure, no later than August 5 of the year the programme begins;
  - c) for the supplementary admission procedure, no later than August 28 of the year the programme begins.
- (2) The Education Office shall make the admission decision regarding the applicant's acceptance into higher educational vocational training programmes, undergraduate programmes, and undivided programmes based on a unified ranking by programme (per programme that leads to a separate qualification), as well as for master's programmes and applicants who already hold a diploma, based on institutional ranking and the maximum student capacity for each programme as set by the minister for the respective institution.
- (3) A unified ranking system shall be applied to decide on applicants. No one can be ranked below the threshold for the specific programme. Those who reach or exceed the threshold shall be admitted, unless they have already been admitted to a higher-ranked position according to the evaluation order.
- (4) The Education Office shall communicate the decision regarding the ranking to the applicant no later than the deadline specified in Section 26(1) of the Decree. The decision will be made available through the official admissions website and the personal administrative interface. The Education Office will notify the applicant of the decision and how to view it via:
  - a) electronic mail, or
  - b) postal mail.

6.2. The decision on admission

19. §

- (1) <sup>89</sup>The University shall communicate its admission decision in the central admission procedures as follows:
  - a) for the cross-semester admission procedure, within eight days following the date of the ranking decision;
  - b) for the general admission procedure, by August 8;
  - c) for the supplementary admission procedure, by August 31.

The University will admit the applicant who has been ranked and assigned by the Office based on the notification. The Educational Directorate will send an email to every admitted applicant with information regarding the admission, registration, and the commencement of studies.

- (2) <sup>90</sup>In the case of training courses announced in a foreign language for foreign applicants in the home institution's own procedure, or off-campus, cross-border programmes, and in the case of postgraduate specialist training programmes, the decision on admission shall be taken by a deadline which allows the successful candidate to fulfil his/her enrolment obligations as specified in the timetable for the academic year. For every successfully admitted applicants the Educational Directorate shall send information about admission, enrolment and the start of studies by e-mail.
- (3) <sup>91</sup>For the admission procedures outlined in the section (2) as the University is responsible for the ranking and admission decisions the rejected applicants shall also be notified of the decision in the form of a formal decision. The decision shall include the reasons for the rejection of the admission application. The decision can be sent by email.
- (4) If the appeal decision against the ranking decision as described in Articles 25-27 of the Decree leads to a modification of the admission decision, the University shall amend the admission decision accordingly. If, following the appeal decision, the applicant is ranked by another higher education institution, both institutions shall have the admission decision in place.
- (5) <sup>92</sup>For applicants who have been ranked in the central admission procedure, the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs, with the collaboration of the Educational Directorate preferably through the NEPTUN System will issue a decision. The decision shall include:
  - a) the name and institutional identifier of the higher education institution;
  - b) the exact name of the programme chosen by the applicant;
  - c) the applicant's name, place of residence, and, if applicable, the educational identification number:
  - d) information on the available appeal options;
  - e) a call for the establishment of student status and a warning regarding the consequences of failing to register;
  - f) the legal provisions on which the decision is based;
  - g) the place and date of decision-making, the name and official position of the person who issued the decision.

The decision may also include:

- a) further information regarding the establishment of student status;
- b) an offer of admission to a preparatory year for applicants who are not Hungarian citizens.
- (6) The admitted applicant can establish student status in the semester for which they have been admitted during the admission procedure.
- (7) <sup>93,94</sup> Considering the proposal of the programme hosting institute about the launch of the programme (in case of postgradual specialist training programmes and specialized teacher training programmes) and the published criteria, the decision on the admission shall be made by the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs. This decision shall be communicated to the Educational Directorate without delay, but no later than 5 working days before the last day of the semester's registration period. In the additional admission procedure for postgradual specialist training programmes the decision shall be communicated to the Educational Directorate without delay. The Educational Directorate will immediately prepare the notification of the candidates and the admission decision based on the decision, and will arrange for the registration of the admitted candidates in NEPTUN System. The admission decision will be sent to the admitted candidate via NEPTUN System, if possible. The decision shall contain the information referred to in Section 5(a) to (g).

- <sup>95,96</sup> After reviewing the documents recorded in the admission procedure for foreign students in a foreign language, including the various scholarship programmes, and after conducting an oral interview, the Admission Board, taking into account the differences in the educational systems of each country, makes a recommendation for admission or rejection. In case of refusal, the Admission Board will prepare a short justification in English. On the basis of the proposal of the Admission Board, the FDT shall decide on the launch of the programme and on admission. The decisions are recorded in the International Directorate's own records, after which the final results are immediately sent to the Educational Directorate. The Educational Directorate shall immediately prepare the information letter and the admission decision on the basis of the decision and shall arrange for the registration of the admitted candidates in NEPTUN system. The admission decision, including the preliminary admission letter and the final admission letter, is drawn up on paper and sent to the applicant as a scanned e-mail attachment. Preliminary letters of admission shall be signed by the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs or the Educational director, and final admission letters shall be signed by the Head of the Registrar's Office of the campus where the programme belongs to. The decision shall contain the information referred to in Section 5(a) to (g). In the case of rejected applicants, the decision shall be signed by the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs or the Educational director and sent by the International Directorate by e-mail.
- (9) <sup>97</sup>-
- (10) 98,99 Admission to off-campus, cross-border programmes: Applicants for programmes located outside the university's headquarters shall be admitted based on the decision of the Vice-Rector for Education and International Affairs. The decision is made following the recommendation of the head of the institute hosting the programme regarding the initiation or refusal of the programme and the decision proposals concerning each applicant. The decision will be made according to the conditions outlined in the Admission Guide and on the University's website, and the admission decision shall be communicated to the Educational Directorate no later than the start of the semester's registration period. The Educational Directorate will promptly prepare the notification and admission decision for the accepted applicants, coordinate the content with the relevant campuses, and register the admitted students in the NEPTUN System. If possible, the admission decision will be sent via NEPTUN System. The decision shall include the information outlined in Sections (5) a-g).

7. APPEALS

20. §

(1) Decisions related to the institutional powers regarding higher education admission procedures, or appeals against omissions, are handled by the University in accordance with Articles 57-58 of the Nftv. (Higher Education Act) and the relevant provisions of the SZMR.

- (2) An appeal can be made against the initial admission decision within 15 days from the notification of the decision, or from the date when the applicant becomes aware of the decision, if no notification has been received. The appeal shall be submitted to the University's Rector, as specified in the admission decision, and in the prescribed manner and time.
- (3) The appeal procedure shall be concluded within 15 days of receiving the appeal. The appeal is handled by the Student Appeal Committee. The second-instance decision becomes final upon communication. A judicial review of the second-instance decision can be requested within 30 days from its notification, citing legal violations.

8. HANDLING OF ADMISSION DOCUMENTS

21. §

- (1) 100,101 The necessary data recording for the central higher education admission system's JEDI program, document evaluation, and recording of results from the Admission Examination Boards are carried out by the institute managing the programme, in cooperation with the Educational Directorate. In accordance with the joint decision of the institute director and the educational director, this administrative task can also be performed by designated staff from the campus's academic office. The Educational Directorate will prepare a summary table with the names of the staff handling the data recording and document evaluation for each programme.
- (2) <sup>102,103</sup>The minutes for the admission oral exams, aptitude tests, and practical exams are prepared by the designated staff of the Educational Directorate.
- (3) Documents related to the admission procedure, admission exams, and appeals shall be preserved for the period specified in the Record Management Plan, which is part of the SZMR.
